But this by the way. Living with the Prayer Book". Then follow numerous offices which we shall find it convenient to classify under. The Eucharistic prayer was split in two so that Eucharistic bread and wine were shared immediately after the words of institution This is my Body. It was only on Henry's death in and the accession of Edward VI that revision could proceed faster. If I add that the American Book drops out of the Visitation of the Sick a form of private absolution, and greatly modifies the service for Ash-Wednesday, we shall have made our survey of differences tolerably, though by no means exhaustively complete. The book, however, was used only for a short period, as Edward VI had died in the stated above, the Convocation of gave to the Prayer Book of the Church of England the form it has ever since retained. Since the Book of Divine Worship has undergone additional revision to bring it more coherently in line with the language of the American BCP, while also incorporating elements of the English Missal and the Anglican Missal.
