The review must be at least 50 characters long. This is a great devotional for any Christian runner! Furthermore, Lisa chose relevant scriptures and thought provoking questions to coincide with each devotional. YouAreaBadassatMakingMoney: And I would recommend not rushing into each, preferably reading one in the morning and one in the evening. Continue shopping Checkout Continue shopping.

I think we would be running together, and we all are running this race together. My favorite devotional was entitled "In all conditions" and talked about resolving to keep running the race by intentionally choosing to keep on trusting and not giving up based on verse about being able to do all things through Christ.
