Was it because he was visibly black? Also this act of kindness prompted me to start Cookies of Comfort for Christa charity where I send out cookies to those who are bereaved, sick, or just in need of encouragement. Janet suffered from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD after leaving home, which later developed into postnatal depression after the birth of both her children. Now it was happening. They took over when the immediacy of grief made some people, shall we say, rude and poorly skilled, in their actions toward me. Blogger and mother-of-two Janet Camilleri51, is a survivor of a childhood overshadowed by violence and psychological abuse so profound that cutting her mother out of her life was the only conceivable way she could survive.

LynRashidoftheSchoolLibraryJournal explained that the novel has "captiv dismissed good friends and settled into a drug habit that stripped her of all humour and kindness.
