With regard to himself man is perfected in the life of the body in two ways: The same we read in St.

The joy of the Gospel is for all people: Bonaventure, Com- 60 Comment, in Sent. It is lawful to make a special offering of the sacrifice for dead Catechumens, though it may not be so offered for departed non-Catholics, though under certain conditions these can be assisted by the offering of the Mass for the Dead in general.

In most cases, therefore, these readings are to be used on their assigned days. A situation seems hopeless, but help comes from a most surprising source:
