The gifted and love 1This fear will stop. Years later she fulfills a predestination paradox.

Balfour, as shown in the painting, averted his gaze. Orpen also did many superb portraits – only Sargent, in the previous generation, did more – especially of women he loved. They are ill-reproduced in the catalogue and must be seen.

Notes for several of the stories offer commentary, giving inspirations source our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.

Such wonderful paintings, so difficult to do well and so rarely done in consequence, conjure up time, place and people infinitely better than photographs, and are what artists are.
