Remember—they are watching you to see how you handle. The black colt saw his adversary leaving him and responded by leaping forward in pursuit. Grayeyes sparkling with excitement, she descended on them with shouts of elation. He hates all that fuss. Unhurt, he grimly picked himself up and returned to try. Ann was nearly caught off guard, thankful that she still had a handful of mane. Even so, he kept pushing his nose against the rascal as he whispered calming words in their ears. They both jumped down from their horses and loosened their girths. As soon as all three were ready, Michael pushed the button.
