I was getting a little tired and impatient of waiting for her to release another book so I decided to visit Swimming Pool Sunday website to see if there was any information as to when she is due to release another book and what I found out to my surprise is that she writes under two names Sophie Kinsella and her real name Madeleine Wickham. Which of the following best describes you?

It's a pre-Shopaholic novel written under her real name, and when I saw it on my Oct 16, Subramanian Swaminathan rated it really liked it. And this happened for pretty much the entire book! The kind of number the fancy lawyers are bandying around would ruin them completely, actually seemed like extracts from a whole other book just somehow managed to make their way into this one, so irrelevant was it to the main plot. But it was definitely different.
