After being released, Severus' son stepped swiftly into the circle, drew his wand, and began the incantation to set in motion a ritual that, if The Twisted Timeline Trilogy, would give them a fighting chance to destroy the wizarding world's most feared adversary, Lord Voldemort. And it ends with a new beginning in The Bottle Tossed Across the Sky, where a chronically ill man gets a second chance at life, and adventure, when he allows his brain to be destroyed in the name of science, one cell at a time.
