She, of course, is not a typical lady, rather someone who is a rescuer of wounded animals and people and she turns his home upside. It treads lightly through history, romance and sexuality. Aug02, SarahFriendrateditreallylikedit. The rest of the novel focuses on the two trying to reconcile the past and future and deciding whether they can trust. A sweet love story, without strong impediments or psychological dramas, that I like a lot in historical romance.

She's just plain stupid. I can't count the times that the heroine's scampered. I'm typing this review I feel like I should dock a point seeing my complaints.
